

Paraguay

Members from Christ Lutheran Church work with a church in Asuncion, Paraguay to plant a new church in a local barrio. During the day special events with games and a puppet show, designed to entertain the children with the Gospel message, drew hundreds of children from the neighborhood.

In the evenings more men, women, and children gathered to listen to the pastor of the new church tell them of the saving grace of Jesus.

